PowerSearch Plus: A Common Question on Relevancy

- “How does the application do relevancy searching?”
 - Relies on each data source to return the most relevant results based on the search term
 - Looks to metadata for keyword clustering
 - If a ranking is attached to the retrieval, it is used in the presentation of the results
 - If a ranking is not included, then a ranking is assigned based on the order in which the result was retrieved.
 - Then all of the results are examined to extract ‘subject clusters’

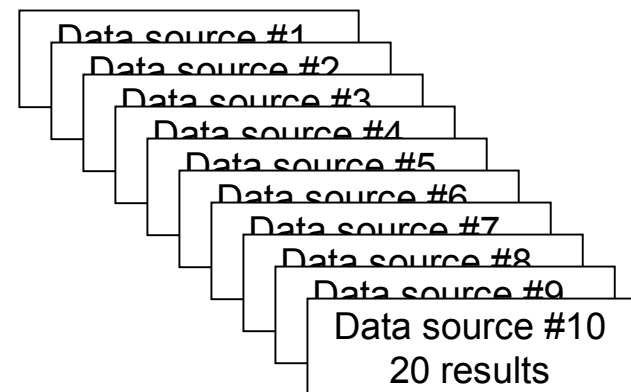

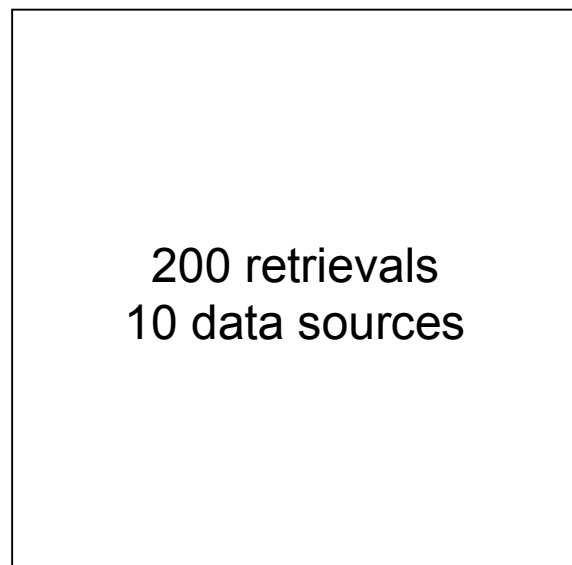

“Clustering takes the relevancy out of search”

PowerSearch Plus: A Common Question on Gale Sources

- “Since this is a Gale platform, I suspect Gale resources are going to be returned more frequently than other sources, correct?”
 - Not true. The search results are equal among all databases, providing each database has the content to retrieve. Let’s take an example to illustrate this:

Did You Mean?

“Did You Mean?” offers suggestions when a user misspells a term or phrase. Below, a search on “alcoholizm” brings forth the following suggestions.

The screenshot shows the Gale PowerSearch interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Gale logo, a 'Return to Library' link, and links for 'Preferences', 'Change Databases', and 'Logout'. Below this is a search bar with the text 'PowerSearch™'. A secondary navigation bar includes 'Dictionary', 'Title List', and 'Help' links, along with search options: 'Basic Search', 'Subject Guide Search', 'Publication Search', and 'Advanced Search'. The 'Basic Search' option is selected, and the search results page is displayed. The search input field contains the text 'alcoholizm' and a 'GO' button. The results section shows 'Results for Basic Search (KE (alcoholizm))' and a message: 'No Results matching your search term(s) were found. Please check your spelling or try other search term(s). Revise Search'. Below this, a 'Did You Mean:' section lists suggestions: alcoholism, alcoholics, alcoholic, alcohols, and alcohol. The footer contains links for 'About PowerSearch', 'Contact Gale', 'Copyright', 'Terms of Use', and 'Privacy Policy'.

Also Try

“Also Try” feature helps users find better information. Example below suggests “Capital Punishment” when user searches on “death penalty.”

The screenshot shows the GALE PowerSearch interface. At the top, the GALE logo and PowerSearch™ are visible, along with navigation links for Preferences, Change Databases, and Logout. Below the logo, there are links for Bookmark, Previous Searches, Dictionary, Title List, and Help. The main search area includes tabs for Basic Search, Subject Guide Search, Publication Search, and Advanced Search, with a 'Powered by InfoTrac' logo on the right. The search results page shows 'Results for Basic Search (KE (death penalty))'. A search box contains 'death penalty' and a 'GO' button. A checkbox labeled 'within these results' is checked. A 'Narrow Results' section allows filtering by 'Document Type' with a dropdown menu. A list of document types is shown, including Book Review (21), Brief Article (100), Chronology (1), Column (3), Correction Notice (2), Cover Story (2), Editorial (3), Interview (2), Letter to the Editor (12), Sound Recording Review (1), Video Recording Review (1), and Young Adult Review (3). The main results area displays 'Also Try: Capital Punishment'. Below this, there are buttons for 'Magazines (305)', 'Academic Journals (409)', 'Books (276)', 'News (1230)', 'Multimedia (68)', and 'Additional Databases'. A 'to documents:' section has checkboxes for 'with full text' and 'with images'. A 'Sort by:' dropdown menu is set to 'Publication Date'. A 'Mark All' checkbox is present, along with 'Previous' and 'Next' navigation arrows and a 'Create a Search Alert' button. The first search result is: '1. Five law students enrolled in Florida A&M University's College of Law's new death penalty clinic attended the June 15 Commission on Capital Cases' Advanced Capital Cases Seminar in Orlando. Article'. Below the title, it says 'Florida Bar News 34.14 (July 15, 2007) : p.5(1). (262 words) From General OneFile.'

Colored Tabs, with number of results per tab.

Libraries can choose their default tab. "Reference" has been changed to "Books," as it is a term more users are familiar with.

The screenshot displays the GALE PowerSearch interface. At the top, the GALE logo and 'PowerSearch™' are visible. A navigation bar includes 'Return to Library', 'Preferences', 'Change Databases', and 'Logout'. Below this, there are search options: 'Basic Search', 'Subject Guide Search', 'Publication Search', and 'Advanced Search'. The 'Basic Search' tab is selected, showing 'Results' for the search term 'ozone'. A sidebar on the left offers 'Search' options, including a search box with 'ozone' and a 'GO' button, and a 'Narrow Results' section with a 'Document Type' dropdown menu. The main results area shows 'Results for Basic Search (KE (global warming))LIMITS: (full text)) And ((peer-reviewed))'. It features a row of colored tabs for document types: 'Magazines (1431)', 'Academic Journals (480)', 'Books (228)', 'News (2051)', 'Multimedia (64)', and 'Additional Databases'. Below the tabs are filters for 'to documents' with checkboxes for 'with full text', 'peer-reviewed', and 'with images'. A 'Sort by' dropdown is set to 'Publication Date'. A 'Mark All' checkbox and a 'Create a Search Alert' button are also present. The first search result is '1. The politics of global warming.(OPINION) Thomas Sieger Derr. More visually appealing home page, giving users more of a “web-like” experience.

Better, more visible navigation links.

Featured publications, including recently added and titles chosen by librarians.

The screenshot shows the POWERsearch website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for "CHANGE DATABASES", "TOOLBOX", "Welcome back Gale User! (Not Gale User? Sign In)", and "LOG OUT". The main header features the "POWERsearch" logo and a search bar with a "SEARCH" button and a link to "more search options". Below the header is a secondary navigation bar with links for "HOME", "ADVANCED SEARCH", "BROWSE PUBLICATIONS", "BROWSE SUBJECTS", "TOPIC GUIDE", "SEARCH HISTORY", and "MY MARKED LIST".

The main content area is divided into several sections:

- Dashboard: Displays statistics such as "Number of documents: 3 million publications and 40 million articles", "Source Libraries: Morbi commodo ligula. Ut eget nulla eget lacus commodo rhoncus. Nulla sagittis. Praesent sodales. In hendrerit.", "Date Range: 1600-2008", "Languages: English (74,000), German (200), French (800)", and "What's new: Morbi commodo ligula. Ut eget nulla eget lacus commodo rhoncus. Nulla sagittis. Praesent sodales. In hendrerit. Fusce tincidunt, justo vitae consequat vestibulum, augue justo auctor lorem, sed consectetur metus uma sed magna. Pellentesque at diam vel pede." Below this is a link "MORE ABOUT THIS PRODUCT >>".
- Search the site: A search interface with a "Find:" input field, "search in:" options (Full text, Document Title, Keywords), "Limit results:" checkboxes (Show only documents with full text, Show only peer-reviewed publications, Show only documents with images), and "Publication date(s):" options (All dates, Before, On, After, Between) with date pickers. A "SEARCH" button and "more search options" link are at the bottom.
- Featured publication: A section titled "Communication Arts" with a "VIEW ALL >>" link. It includes a thumbnail image of the journal cover and a description: "A monthly trade journal devoted to innovative advertising and graphic design. Includes articles on graphic design firms, advertising agencies, and outstanding people in these fields. For designers and design firms, art departments, advertising agencies, and others in visual communications. Index coverage: Jan 1, 1991-Current. MORE ABOUT THIS PUBLICATION >>".
- What's New, Most Searched, Most Emailed: A list of recent searches and popular items, including "Child Labor." International Encyclopedia of the Social Sciences, "Western nations not living up to promises of Afghanistan aid: report", and "Africa Feature: Somali children working to survive". A "VIEW ALL >>" link is at the bottom.

At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with "©2008 Cengage" on the left and "CONTACT US", "COPYRIGHT", "TERMS OF USE", and "PRIVACY POLICY" on the right.

Enhanced Publication Search

The screenshot shows the Gale POWERsearch interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'CHANGE DATABASES', 'TOOLBOX', 'Welcome back Gale User!', '(Not Gale User? Sign In)', and 'LOG OUT'. The main header features the 'POWERsearch' logo and a search bar with a 'SEARCH' button and a link to 'more search options'. Below the header is a yellow navigation menu with options: 'HOME', 'ADVANCED SEARCH', 'BROWSE PUBLICATIONS', 'BROWSE SUBJECTS', 'TOPIC GUIDE', 'SEARCH HISTORY', and 'MY MARKED LIST'. The main content area is titled 'Browse Publications' and shows results for 'Publication Browse (TI(C)) LIMITS: (full text) name this search'. A 'Find title:' search box with a 'GO' button is present, along with a 'within these results' checkbox. A 'Limit by:' dropdown menu is set to 'Subjects', with a slider below it labeled 'Limit to 50 terms' ranging from 25 to 100. A list of subjects is shown, including 'Lorem (262)', 'Praesent (14)', 'Ipsum (83)', 'Dolor (23)', 'Vivamus (26)', 'Lorem (262)', 'Praesent (14)', and 'Ipsum (83)'. A table of publications is displayed with columns for 'Publication title' and 'Publication type'. The 'Communication Arts' entry is highlighted, and a detailed information popup is shown for it, including a cover image, ISSN (0010-3519), Issues/Year (8), Publisher (Coyne & Blanchard, Inc.), Audience (Trade), Publication Format (Magazine/Journal), and Index coverage (Jan 1, 1991 - Current). A 'VIEW DETAILED INFORMATION' link is also visible.

Browse through Gale's more than 20,000 publications, refining by subject and type.

New hover technology allows user to see more details without clicking through.
